DECEMBER

THIS MONTH ON WBAI

"The times they are a-changin'" . . . not the times really, but the mornings. The times are stayin' pretty much the same. Beginning in December the music dept. will be given an additional time-slot: MUSIC AT DAWN (Mon.-Fri., 5-6:45 AM). A variety of music will be aired, such as rock—old & new, folk—American & European, swing, big band, and nostalgia. These will be followed by THE MORNING SERIAL (6:45-7 AM), which will be followed by THE MORNING NEWS (7-7:15 AM). At 7:15 AM the usual "7 AM" programming resumes.

This is the month of the WBAI Crafts Fair. CRAFTS-FAIRMANSHIP (Dec. 1, 1-1:30 PM) will give background information on the fair, and MEET THE MAKER (5 minute mini-shows) will offer interviews with fair participants. Both shows produced by Joyce West.

Dec. 7th, the day America was initiated into the Hot War, WWII, WBAI reflects on THE COLD WAR—NOW AND THEN (5-6:30 PM), produced by the Public Affairs Dept. From 7:30-11:30 PM the 4-hour Town Hall Rosenberg debate, WERE THE ROSENBERGS FRAMED? will be rebroadcast. Produced for radio by Richard Barr.

Barr? Music? Yes music. The musical group JANELA can be heard on Dec. 8th (4-5 PM). PIPER IN THE MEADOW STRAYING (Dec. 10, 9:30-11 AM) will feature Matt Molloy & Sean Keane, members of the Irish traditional music group, The Chieftains. Produced by Ed Haber. BEHIND THE GREEN CURTAIN (Fridays, 7:15-8 PM) will fill you in on the political turbulence in Northern Ireland, which has become an unfortunate tradition, to say the least. Produced by Barbara Juppe, Mick Dewan, & John McDonaugh. Not a musical show but worth mentioning.

Music is magical and so is Joyce West's MAGIC TIME PRESENTS—BURR TILLSTROM AND THE KUKLA-POLITANS (Dec. 14, 3:30-4 PM). Learn all about "Kukla, Fran and Ollie." From puppets to poets no magic is lost. THE POETRY PROJECT (Fridays, 8:30-9 or 9:30 PM), produced by poetic and frisky John Fisk, spotlights poets reading before a live audience. A MOVEABLE FEAST (Mondays, 3:30-4 PM), produced by Tom Vitale, features poets this month, with a special 2-part TRIBUTE TO W.H. AUDEN (Dec. 19, 26).

Saving the joyous for last and before I forget—to one and all (and Hildegard H. Fisher)—have a happy Holiday season!!! Honest Tom Pomposello rolls in the season with A CHRISTMAS BLUES SPECIAL (Dec. 22, 4-6:30 PM). On Christmas day the line up is . . . open up your sleepy ears to A LEONARD LOPATE CHRISTMAS SPECIAL (8:30-11 PM) and hear a delightful brand of a Lopate Christmas. Then Larry Josephson continues the celebration with his BOUREGOIS LIBERATION SPEIAL (11 AM-2 PM), followed by Mr. K. himself, the CITIZEN (2-4:30 PM). Citizen says the FREE MUSIC STORE will continue full blast adding to our musical education at PS 41 (11 St. & 6 Ave., Sundays, 8-10 PM) throughout the month. Back to Christmas, 4:30-6:30 PM will house THE GOLDEN AGE OF RADIO with Jack Shugg & Max Schmid. Ho Ho Ho and a Happy Humphrey to all & to all a good Knight.

REPORT TO THE LISTENER

by Phil Tymon

WBAI Covers Grenada

WBAI's unique role was demonstrated once again as the incredible events in Grenada unfolded, each more stunning than the previous. Following in the wake of the downing of KAL flight 007 over the Soviet Union and occurring simultaneously with the bombing and increased hostility in Lebanon, the violent coup in Grenada and subsequent U.S. invasion brought the national and world situation to an unusually grim intensity.

The importance of WBAI as an institution was highlighted once again by the Grenadian situation. The U.S. government banned news reporters from the island during the crucial first days of the invation. State Department press releases, often later recanted, were uncritically presented to the American public by much of the news media as representing the objective truth. Questioning and criticism by Congress, the press and other major institutions seemed to waver as some polls reported that 80% of U.S. citizens supported the U.S. participation in the invasion.

In the best traditions of Pacifica, WBAI producers put aside their regular programming in order to examine all sides of the issue. Paul McIsaac, a WBAI correspondent, was the only newsperson on the island who reported during the invasion and subsequent news blackout. WBAI initiated a number of specials to cover the unfolding circumstances, including live coverage of the U.N. special sessions and of the exceptional address by the Grenadian ambassador to the U.N. WBAI producers sought out people and information to shed full light on the nature of the events in Grenada. They uncovered facts which were overlooked or understated by the rest of the media.

As in the past, WBAI and Pacifica refused to ride the bandwagon, and obstinately insisted on a skeptical approach to official characterizations of these major events. We know that this is what our audience expects of WBAI, and we pledge to continue in that tradition. But in order to remain stubbornly independent, we need your continued support. So, speaking of pledges. . .

Send in Your Pledge Yet?

As of November 14th, 65% of the $130,000 pledged in September and October had been received. That means that $45,000 has not yet been received. We could sure use that money. If you haven't sent it in yet—please do it now.

FRIDAYS, DECEMBER 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, 7:15 PM TO 8:00 PM, BEHIND THE GREEN CURTAIN. Produced by Barbara Juppe, Mick Dewan, and John McDonaugh. This weekly program brings listeners up-to-date news and information about the Irish community and events in Northern Ireland's struggle for self-determination.

"The enforced partition in 1920-21 created the Irish Free State in the South and a six county British colony in the North deprived the Irish people of their right to self-determination. . . The aim of the British setting two parliaments in Ireland was to protect their economic interests in the North where the heavy industry was concentrated at that time.

"Since 1920 the British (SAS) and police (RUC) in this 'statelet' have been given special powers of arrest and detention of Irish nationalists. More recently, these police and soldiers have intensified their campaign of intimidation by executing 'suspects' on sight.

"The war in Ireland is NOT about religion; the antagonism between Protestants and Catholics is a secondary result of the long history of British colonial policies in Ireland. The issue is the fundamental right of the Irish people to self-determination—to determine their own future and control their own tesources.

"The British partition in 1920. . . has resulted in widespread poverty and deprivation comparable to the situation in Third World countries."
(quote by Seosamh Mac an Bheatha)

FRIDAYS, DECEMBER 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, 8:30 PM TO 9 PM (sometimes to 9:30 PM), THE POETRY PROJECT. Produced by John Fisk. Each week John Fisk presents highlights from the continual series of poetry readings which take place at the St. Marks Church at 10th Street and 2nd Avenue in Manhattan. For further information call 674-0910.

> The poet has a new thought; he has a whole new experience to unfold. . . For the experience of each new age requires a new confession, and the world seems always waiting for its poet.
> —Ralph Waldo Emerson, from essay The Poet

> When a society becomes afraid of its poets, it is afraid of itself. A society afraid of itself stands as another definition of hell
> —Lenore Kandel, World Alchemy, p. VI, the Introduction

WEDNESDAYS, DECEMBER 7, 14, 21, 28, 3:30 PM to 4PM, MAGIC TIME with Joyce West, Martha Dodge and friends. Once upon a time there was a time-space on WBAI called Wednesday Afternoon At 3:30 (WED-330 for short). It was very lonely. One day, the Radio Fairy heard WED-330 crying, and decided to help. She gave it "Magic Time" which is for all folks who like fun, but especially for 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 year olds!

"Magic Time" fills WED-330 with stories, jokes, riddles, puzzles, songs, tongue-twisters, as well as maybe-useful information about how to give a party, make a present or surprise your friends with swell information, like who invented earmuffs!

There is stuff about special holidays and customs of all people and religions. There are also games to play. You can play by writing to "Magic Time," WBAI, 505 8th Ave., NY, NY 10018; and by calling 279-3400 when it's a call-in day!

So, don't let WED-330 be lonely anymore. Join in every Wednesday at 3:30. See you there!

hear this exciting debate once more—tonight's the night! Produced for radio by Richard Barr.

"The FBI material known as 'The Kaufman Papers' shows Judge Kaufman agreeing to give the death sentence before the verdict was in, secretly consulting with prosecution officials about the sentence and falsely announcing that he had 'refrained from asking the government for a recommendation.' They show he communicated with the FBI and prosecution to expedite the appeals process before there could be a full review by the Supreme Court." (By Michael and Robert Meeropol, sons of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, from a letter written to the New York Times, dated 3-24-77).

Please note—tapes of this debate are available to the public.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 9:30 AM TO 11 AM, PIPER IN THE MEADOW STRAYING. This show, engineered and produced by Edward Haber, features flutist Matt Molloy and fiddler Sean Keane—both members of the Irish traditional music group, the Chieftains.

"While the Chieftains' music is not strictly traditional—they play harmony passages and compose some tunes themselves—it does have a clarity and authenticity that has made them the best-known source of Irish folk music. The band . . . weaves their instruments through a beautifully spare mix that includes a goatskin drum, bagpipes, concert flutes, wire-strung harp, concertina, bones and an occasional oboe or hammer dulcimer." This program was recorded at the Guggenheim Museum an sponsored by the Academy of American Poets in honor of the 10th anniversary of Auden's death. Auden was born in York, England (1907), came to the U.S. in 1939, and became an American citizen in 1946. In 1948 he won the Pulitzer poetry prize.

Donald Stauffer says of Auden in A Short History of American Poetry (EP Dutton, 1974—p. 351), that he was a major influence on American poets in the 1940s and 1950s because he "showed how the poet could use the play of irony and irreverent wit to dissect the economic and social ills of modern civilization.

PART ONE (Dec. 19) features readings by John Ashbery, Joseph Brodsky, Anthony Hecht, May Swenson and others, including an additional interview with Joseph Brodsky.

PART TWO (Dec. 26) features readings by Stephen Spender, James Merrill, Howard Moss, and Derek Walcott, including an additional interview with Stephen Spender.

All I have is a voice
To undo the folded lie,
The romantic lie in the brain
Of the sensual man-in-the-street
And the lie of Authority
Whose buildings group the sky:
There is no such thing as the State
And no one exists alone;
Hunger allows no choice
To the citizen or the police
We must love one another or die.

—W.H. Auden

"Louis Armstrong may well be the single most important figure in twentieth-century music. . . he. . . developed a radical solo voice on the cornet and a rhythmic blueprint for the small jazz ensemble that laid the cornerstone for latet developments in jazz, blues, country and rock playing.

"Armstrong's unique phrasing and his lucid combination of rhythmic and melodic elements enabled him to become the first important jazz soloist, and arguably the first major soloist in any American music.

"Miles Davis has claimed that Armstrong's playing covered everything subsequently done in jazz, right up to the present era." (quoted from The Rolling Stone Guilde to Records, p. 456)

We only send input to the computer once a month, so if your subscription comes in at the wrong time it must wait until the next month. Someday, if we have in-house computer capacity, we will be able to process new subscriptions on a more timely basis.

Slow Delivery. The Folio is mailed third class. Speed of delivery seems to vary radically from Post Office to Post Office. Tell your Post Office or postal carrier that you would like them to expedite delivery of the Folio. We are making every effort to mail the Folio as early as possible.

Subscription Problems. If you are having any sort of subscription problem please write to "Subscriptions," at WBAI. It will help immensely if you include your address label from a recent Folio.

Multiple Billings. During the course of a year we may send you a number of pieces of mail: renewal notices; direct mail appeals; and first, second, and even third billings on your Marathon pledges. If you have recently sent in a donation and you receive another piece of mail, just disregard it, unless, of course, you wish to donate again. There is often an overlap in mailings. It just costs us additional postage if you send a note to tell us that you've already contributed.

If You Move. Let us know your new address as soon as possible. Please include a recent Folio label for your old address, if possible. If you do not give us your new address, the post office will return your Folio for that month with your new address on it, if you have left a forwarding order. However, it costs us extra money, delays our changing of your address, and you miss one or two Folios.

Name and Address on a Separate Piece of Paper. When you send money, always enclose your name and address on a separate piece of paper. A recent renewal form, pledge form, or other WBAI form with you label on it is best. Donations sent to our box number are opened directly at the bank and the donation itself is removed. If your name and address are not on a separate form, we may not get a record of your donation.

Free Subscriptions for Institutionalized Persons. WBAI will send a free subscription to any prisoner, person incarcerated in a mental institution, or other institutionalized persons upon request. Donations to WBAI may specify support for such free subscriptions.

There are some reasons for the low return rate. We know that a large number of pledges, possibly as much as $10,000 are bogus. We also know that some people send in a donation without having made a pledge. Therefore, if we could subtract the phony pledges and add the non-pledged donations, we'd probably have a return rate of over 70% at this point. Even so, that leaves us short many thousands of dollars—dollars which could repair the transmitter, pay the staff, keep the phones operating, and buy new fluorescent bulbs for the hallways which have now been dark for nearly a month.

Why the November Folio Was Late

The COMPUTER did it. Yes, the Folio staff had the Folio printed and ready to go well before the end of October. But the computer house which keeps our list and prints our Folio labels (and usually does so very quickly) had some problems. So the Folio sat at the mailer till the labels were delivered on November 1st.

To try to avoid this problem in the future, all Folio deadlines are being moved up by a week to ten days, so that the Folio should get out much earlier and reach most people by the first of the month.

Speaking of Computers

Sharon Mattlin who, among other things, has been feeding subscription information into the maw of the mechanical brain, is a bit fed up herself. She has announced her intention to turn her energies to more satisfying endeavors here at BAI than trying to interpret the handwriting on a hastily scribbled pledge form. . . like running the freight elevator.

Speaking of Fed Up

The approach of winter seems to be a time for retreat into the self—otherwise known as "burn-out." Three of our most beloved producers have decided that they need a break for a wh ile. Lenny Lopate, Mickey Waldman and Les Hixon will all be missed during the months they will be pursuing other endeavors.

In Response to Listener Demand

There will be a Report to the Listener on December 10th at 1 PM

NIGHTBEAT—EARTHWATCH WITH ROBERT KNIGHT

(with guest Tamara Cohns, 9-9-83, 2:30-3 AM)

Compiled by Barrie Gellis

(Topic: Beirut Massacre)

"(TC) A journalist's job, and a human being's job, is to try and get out as much of the truth as one knows about something, with the purpose of trying to make people aware so that perhaps there can be a prevention of a repetition of such things. . . During my travels in Israel I was in Hebron . . . the second largest Palestinian City in the West Bank. It has been settled in the outskirts by huge Jewish settlements. The Jewish settlers decided that they wanted to settle inside Hebron itself. On this particular calm day I witnessed the settlers come down . . . with rifles slung over their shoulders, with the rifle butts sticking out, and shoving and scaring the local population. Visions, for me, were created of old footage of Nazis marching into old Jewish quarters and scaring people. The intent clearly is to scare the people into leaving, perhaps voluntarily, if there is such a thing. This symbolizes for me the determination of Israel to purify this land of what is considered an alien population and make it entirely Jewish. . . Had the massacre happened to Jewish people,, these days coming on to the first anniversary of those events would be filled in the Western world with cries of 'Never Again,' and there's a resounding silence now."

"(RK) My objective in this program is to call out to the part of one that is more than Jewish or more than whatever ethnicity one may belong to, and find out how we can eliminate this disease of oblivion annihilating others of slightly different bodily and cultural characteristics." (C) "I'm an officer in the Israeli army, and I understand and respect that, but I think that your guest's objective is to portray the Jewish people in Israel with the Nazis in frequent equations. . . Many of my best friends have died simply because they did not want to shoot indiscriminately."

"(C) What's this about Israel not being responsible for the massacre? . . . During the Nuremberg trials, the Nazis made the same excuse saying they did not commit atrocities in certain Polish villages—the Ukrainian nationalists did, but who supplied them and who made it possible for them to commit murder?"

"(RK) What concerns me are many symptoms all over the planet of a mental disease that is quite dangerous."

[TC- = Tamara Cohens; RK = Robert Knight; C = caller]

WBAI NEEDS:

A microfiche reader.

After a long wait, the microfiche of Pacifica Program service holdings will be made available to WBAI in just a few months. The station needs a microfiche reader because the difference in costs is considerable—$200 a set for printed volumes of program indexes as opposed to a few dollars a piece for the microfiche slide. The catalog provides good access to all Pacifica programs in the archives since 1976 through title, producer and subject.

One reader would be wonderful, and a few of them would make life a great deal easier here.

FIVE PHOTOGRAPHERS

CUOMO • KORNBLUH • STETTNER • TERNER • WEINSTEIN

December 3, 1983 to January 8, 1984

Opening: Saturday, December 3, 3 to 6pm

Gallery Hours: Saturday 11am to 5pm
Sunday 11am to 4 and by appointment

Each of these five photographers uses the image to think, to literally see what he feels. Louis Stettner's lyric humanism sings in landscape, portrait and still life. Peopled streets exude a hard-earned warmth in the color work of Todd Weinstein and in the black and white of Barry Kornbluh. Joe Cuomo's streets are dreams, simultaneously real and abstract, humorous and haunting. Ron Terner's multi-toned, abstract nudes embrace the primal, awakening emotion and the mind. What these five photographers share is a respect for differences, a passion to experience, a vision with heart.

REPORT FROM THE LISTENER

ROSENBERG RESPONSE

Dear Mr. Barr,

I would like to congratulate you and the station for broadcasting The Rosenberg Debate. The program was riveting. The debate was a historic event not only for radio but for serious intellectual and political discourse in this country.

My reason for writing, however, is to ask if you have any plans to rebroadcast the program. I have talked to many people about it who have expressed regret that they missed all or part of it.

Best wishes.

Roger Keeran
Director of Education
New Jersey

(Ed: Yes, the show will be rebroadcast on Dec. 7, 7:30-11:30 PM).

A MESSAGE IN THE SILENCE

Oct. 25, 1983

Gentlemen:

Try turning your station off the air for about 8 seconds of silence and your listeners and supporters will quickly understand how important the station is to our cultural lives.

Sincerely,
E.A. Jurist
Nyack, NY

BECAUSE THE DAY

Nov. 7, 1983

Dear Barbra, Sally and the News Team,

I think you're doing a really good job. Regrets to Robert.

Good luck,

A CLARIFICATION

Nov. 9, 1983

Dear Barrie Gellis:

I wish to respond to your statement in the November Folio regarding my departure as editor on September 2. I did not "leave" the Folio. I was fired. Because I was hired as a consultant rather than as a staff member, I do not have the right to protest my firing as Phil Tymon has announced over the air. Nevertheless, I have hope that some kind of justice will be done. My regards to the Folio staff.

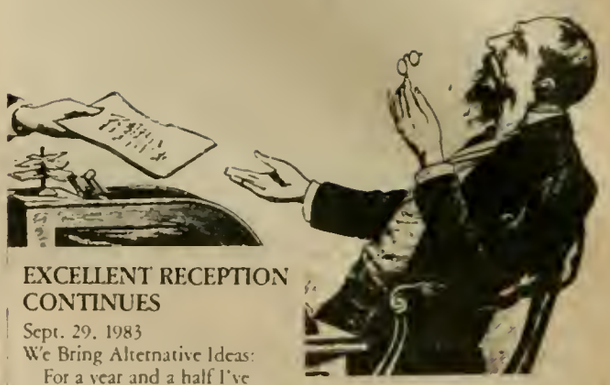
Catherine Revland
New York City

(Barrie's response: I wrote "left" instead of "fired" because fired is such a loaded word. I simply meant to clarify the date Cathie left, not the method of her departure.)

(Phil's response:

1. It was my contention at the time that Cathie had, in fact, resigned and then tried to withdraw her resignation many weeks later, causing quite a bit of confusion. In holding her to her previous resignation I, in effect, fired her.

2. I told Cathie that while she did not have the right to pursue a grievance, that I would not prevent her from doing so if she wished.)



EXCELLENT RECEPTION CONTINUES

Sept. 29, 1983

We Bring Alternative Ideas:

For a year and a half I've tried to get WBAI reliably or at all. Now, with a new radio with excellent reception and access to a rotating outside antenna my dreams have been realized. I even chipped in some $$ at your office as I picked up a Folio & prepared to be flooded with new insights and who knows what else.

To my dismay, I heard that WBAI intends to sell its subcarrier channels for commercial use, in full knowledge that this will significantly degrade reception in outlying areas. Don't do it! People on the edges of your broadcasting area need to know you're out there, even more than those in the thick of NYC. Without Broadcasting Apathy Isolates.

(Ed: Our engineers say this is not true. Everybody's reception, including Eleanor's, should remain virtually unaffected.)

KNIGHTLY NEWS

Oct. 18, 1983

Dear Mr. Knight,

I am in a state of shock! I learned from a program with Phil Tymon that you have been dismissed. Your service as a newscaster has been one of a handful of things which have helped keep me sane . your delivery of the news is matchless—un-hyped and uncompetitive, sensitive and alert. Clearly, your sensibility and your decisions—as news director and newscaster—have played key roles in making your 6:30 newscast beyond comparison—among the sanest and most consistently interesting available today. I have a lot of respect for Barbra Day and the other news anchors, but you are not replaceable

A Universal Amnesty for All Prisoners of Conscience

THOUSANDS of men and women are in prison throughout the world solely because of their political or religious beliefs. Others are held because of their colour or ethnic origin. These are Prisoners of Conscience — none has used or advocated violence.

NONE of these people should be in prison. The fact that they have been arrested and punished because of their beliefs or origins is an affront to humanity. They should be freed unconditionally.

WE CALL FOR A UNIVERSAL AMNESTY FOR ALL PRISONERS OF CONSCIENCE

WE BELIEVE that such an amnesty, backed by the United Nations and declared by all governments, is possible. It would give effect to the moral and legal principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

WE ISSUE this call in the belief that there is an indissoluble link between human rights and peace. An amnesty for all prisoners of conscience would be an unparalleled act in the building of international confidence and the promotion of fundamental freedoms. It would advance respect for human rights everywhere, securing thereby the foundations for justice, freedom and peace.

MORE LETTERS

Oct. 24, 1983
Dear Mr. Franck,

I am concerned about the recent dismissal of Robert Knight from his position as news director. I have always been impressed by the competence and professionalism of Mr. Knight's newscasts.

I am in no position to comment on the charges of Mr. Knight's alleged tardiness and absences. However, I do utge that you undertake an investigation of this matter to allay suspicions of a political/ideological motivation for this dismissal.

It is important that Pacifica continue to provide a forum for leftist news analysis not regularly heard elsewhere on U.S. radio.

Sincerely,
John Lorwin, Esq.
Astoria, Queens

Dear Mr. Tymon,

The firing of Robert Knight was harsh and extreme. . . You didn't poll your listeners or ask our opinions. It was an undemocratic action.

Sincerely,
Dan Friedman

Dear Phil Tymon,

Your "Report to the Listener" during the eveing of Oct. 18 clarified any questions I may have had about the dismissal of Robert Knight. May I compliment you on your professional response during the inquisition of some of the callers.

Sincerely

Oct. 20, 1983
Dear Mr. Tymon,

Regarding the dismissal of Mr. Knight, I feel that if one is paid to do a job and does not satisfactorily perform his assignments then he must be discharged. The news remains the same good reporting as usual, and other programs I have heard remain as they were.

I think it was wonderful of you to lend the station money and all should thank you for it.

Sincerely,
Ann Sparacino

Dear Mr. Tymon,

As a long-time subscriber to WBAI I am writing to express my shock at and to register a protest against your firing of Robert Knight. He has done a superlative job as News Director. For the future good of the station and its listeners I urge you to reinstate him immediately.

Yours sincerely,
Robert D. Burbidge

Dear Philip Tymon,

I want to express my profound chagrin over the ousting of Robert Knight. I found his newscast excellent in all respects. An invaluable person, and a great loss to your station.

Sincerely,

Dear Phil Tymon,

I burst into tears when I heard that Robert Knight was leaving the news. As a listener I feel so, so cheated, He does an absolutely amazing newscast.

I am super angry, tho I am trying to temper this, and feel like any explanation on your side can not be good enough because Robert Knight's news is crucial to free speech.

Oct. 18, 1983
Dear Mr. Tymon,

I would like to commend you on your presentation of the Report to the Listener which aired this evening.

After listening to your side of the stoty my anger with the firing of Robert Knight subsided. Don't get me wrong, I agree 99% with your decision to fire Mr. Knight. If he was not doing the job he was hired to do, there is no reason whatsoever to retain him, no matter how much listener support he may have.

What bothered me most was my feeling of being left out of station operations. Previous to your presentation, I was under the impression that Mr. Knight was ousted from the station at the whim of management. This obviously didn't seem fair or honest to the ideals of WBAI. No matter how far to the left our views may become I feel the democratic process has its merits and should be used and improved upon by the microcosmic society which WBAI is.

Sincerely,
Cliff Berger

AN "INTELLIGENCE" REPORT FROM THE ROBERT KNIGHT COMMITTEE

Oct. 15, 1983
Dear Mr. Tymon:

I am Bill Miles of the Robert Knight Committee. We demand that you immediately return Robert to his position as news director.

We know Robert Knight was removed because you sold out to the Zionists. We have information that you on more than one occasion met with them, and promised to do this dirty deed.

Why does Barbra Day not work on Friday night reporting the news? We all know it is because she is Jewish, just as your masters requested or rather demanded.

Also, not another dime in pledges until Robert Knight is reinstated.

Bill Miles of
The Robert Knight Committee

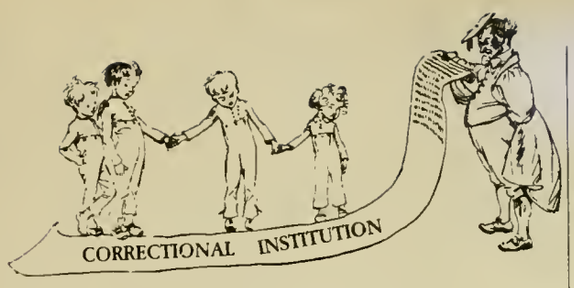
(Ed—I included this letter because it raises major points which are on the minds of many listeners—both those who are angered by Robert's dismissal, as well as those who are pleased.

1. Robert was fired because of his anti-Zionist beliefs, and his "slanted" reporting of the news.

2. We will not subscribe to WBAI if Robert is/isn't rehired.

Both Robert and Phil agree that (1) is false, and that (2) should not be undertaken.

Your comments on WBAI and its programming are welcome. Address correspondence to WBAI Folio, 505 8th Avenue, New York, NY 10018. Letters may be edited for purposes of clarity or space.



Manya's guest on Master Class in the November Folio had her name incorrectly spelled. It should have been Soprano Marisa Galvany.

DEADLINES

Copy deadline for the January Folio is Friday, December 2 for all copy and ads needing design work, and Tuesday, December 6 for camera-ready ads. As for February, the first deadline is Friday, December 30.

The Folio holds its next organizational meeting on Thursday, December 1 and the first Thursday of every month, at 6 pm at the station. All are welcome. If you cannot attend the meeting we would be happy to receive your suggestions by mail. If you do not want such letters to be printed in the Folio, please tell us so.

NEXT MONTH ON WBAI. . .
A series of live broadcasts from the Village Gate, with music, talks and more. . . and a cover-to-cover reading of George Orwell's 1984. Stay tuned.
